The prospect of doing away the franking system as practiced by congressmen is approved by almost everybody, and especially the country press. The Cincinnati Commercial, on this point, seems to be either nothing or iconoclastic because congressmen who get their 3,000 a year ought to be deprived of the franking privilge, this paper argues or rather asserts that the exchanges between publishers ought to be taxed with postage. Here is the style in which that immaculate paper refers to the country press.

"The resolution abolishing the franking privilige that has passed the house of representatives, is a humbug and a false pretense. It cuts off free correspondence between representatives in congress and their constituents, and fills the mail bags throughout the country with the trashy country papers, expressly exempt from postage that they may live to defend all shams, foster every abuse, and praise rascality in public life everywhere. Let the mails be cleared of all deadhead matter or allow the law to remain as it is. A measure of pretended reform that leaves the worst nuisance untouched should move the indignation of honest men."

Here the country press without discrimination, are characterized as "the fenders of all shams, fosterers of every abuse, and praising rascality in life everywhere." Lest the faultless morals of that impeccable diurnal should be contaminated by association with those country papers, whose business is said to foster a d "praise rascality everywhere," we suggest that in response to such a wholesale insult to those humble workers who produce the rural weeklies, that with one united action they cease to burden the mails with a single exchange to that model of news paper lom, the Cincinnati Commercial. If this is done with perfect unanimity it may cut off the sources from which unmerited stealings are made from all parts of the country in order to contribute to the interest of one daily. If that paper can do without any of the country papers, we will risk our side surviving without ever seeing the Cincinnati Commercial.

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE.

Through struggle and suffering, at the cost of multiform agonies, bereavments, devastations, the American Idea embodied in the preamble to our father's Declaration of Independence approaches its complete realization. The noble, inspiring assertion that "all men are created equal," and endowed by their Creator with inalienable rights to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, is no longer a glittering generality, a poet's fancy, a philosopher's speculation, but the recognized base of our political fabric. The benign revolution, which dates from the Boston Massacre of 1770, finds its logical completion, just one century later, in the XVth Amendment which gives to the equal political and civil rights of every man born or naturalized in our republic the shield and defense of the federal constitution. The billows of Caste and Privilege may roar and rage around that rock, and may transiently seem on the point of washing it away; but its foundations are deep-laid and steadfast, and the breakers of Reaction and Slavery are hurled against and dash their spray over it in vain.

We do not underrate the forces of Prejudice and Aristocracy. We do not forget that a very large minority of the American people still hold in their inmost hearts that blacks have no rights which whites are bound to respect. We fully appreciate the desperation wherewith all the warring elements of hatred to republican achievement will be combined and hurled against the battlements of republican ascendency in the Presidential election of 1872. We do not doubt that local successes, facilitated by republican feuds and dissensions, will inspire the charging host with a sanguine hope of victory, such as nerved it to put forth its utmost strength in the earlier stages of the contests of 1864 and 1868. Yet our faith is clear and strong that the American people still bless God, that, on the red battle fields of our late civil war, the union was upheld and slavery destroyed, and will never consciously decide that the precious blood thereon poured out was lavished in vain.

The Tribune believes in the prosecution of the great struggle by legitimate means to ben fisent ends. To state sovereignty, it opposes indissoluble national integrity; to slavery for blacks, liberty for all; to proscription, enfranchisement; to popular ignorance, universal education; to intensity and eternity of wrathful hate, universal and invincible good will. It would fain do its utmost to hasten the glad day when the south shall vie with the north in exultation and gratitude over the disappearance of the last trace or taint of that spirit which impelled man to exult in the ownership and chattelhood of his fellow man.

Profoundly do we realize that the contest is not yet ended—that millions mourn more or less publicly the downfall of the slaveholders' confederacy, and rear their children to hate those by whose valor and constancy its overthrow was achieved. If we ever seem to differ essentially from other republicans, our conviction that magnanimity is never weakness, that vengeance is never politic, and that devils are not cast out by Beelzebub, must serve to explain alleged eccentricities whose perfect vindication we leave to time and reflection.

The Tribune has been, is, and must be, a zealous advocate of protection to Home Industry. Regarding habitual idleness as the greatest foe to human happiness, we seek to win our countrymen in masses from the ensnaring lures of speculation, of traffic, and of always overcrowded professions, to the tranquil paths of productive industry. We would gladly deplete our overcrowded cities, where thousands vainly jostle and crowd in misguided quest of "Something to Do," to cover prairies and plains with colonies absorbed in agriculture, mechanics and manufactures, and constantly projecting into the blank, void wilderness the homes and the works of civilized man. Holding the protection of home industry by discriminating duties on imported wares and fabrics essential to the rapid, beneficent diffusion of production in all its phases and departments, and so to the instruction of our people in all the gainful arts of peace, we urge our countrymen to adhere to and uphold that policy, in undoubting faith that the true interest, not of a class or a section, but of each section and every useful class, is thereby subserved and promoted.

The Tribune aims to be pre eminently a newspaper. Its correspondents traverse every state, are present on every important battle-field, are early advised of every notable cabinet decision, observe the proceedings of congress, of legislatures, and of conventions, and report to us by telegraph all that seems of general interest. We have paid for one day's momentous advices from Europe by cable far more than our entire receipts for the issue in which those advices reached our readers. If lavish outlay, unsleeping vigilance, and unbounded faith in the liberality and discernment of the reading public, will enable us to make a journal which has no superior in the accuracy, variety, and freshness of its contents, The Tribune shall be such a journal.

To Agriculture and the subservient arts, we have devoted, and shall persistently devote, more means and space than any of our rivals. We aim to make the Weekly Tribune such a paper as no farmer can afford to be without, however widely his politics may differ from ours. Our reports of the cattle, horse, produce and general markets, are so full and accurate, our essays in elucidation of the farmer's calling, and our regular reports of the Farmer's Club and kindred gatherings, are so interesting, that the poorest farmer will find therein a mine of suggestion and counsel, of which he cannot remain ignorant without positive and serious loss. We sell the Weekly to clubs for less than its value for waste paper; and, though its subscription is already very large, we believe that a half million more farmers will take it whenever it shall be commended to their attention. We ask our friends everywhere to aid us in so commending it.

A candidate for medical honors having thrown himself into a fever from his incapacity to answer the questions, was asked, 'How would you sweat a man for the rheumatism?' 'I would send him here to be examined.

NEW HEALTH MAXIMS.

Potatoes, both Irish and sweet, are very poor food for brain and muscle

The common notion that our health and life depend on a mysterious Providence is downright infidelity. A child goes out of a hot room, with naked arms and legs in pursuit of its daily supply of poisoned candies, and then dies of croup. Is that mysterious? If a man indulges himself until he gets the gout, and the disease attacks the heart and kills him, is his death a mystery?

The reason that the American people are such dyspeptics is that they eat and drink so much, and eat and drink so fast.

The teeth will not decay if they are kept clean. A tooth brush is a very good thing, but a good tooth pick is worth more than a rmful of tooth brushes. There is a gentleman now living in the city of New York, who has three beautiful front teeth which he purchased of an Irishman. His own teeth were removed and instantly Patrick's were transferred.

The word biliousness is a sort of respectable cover for piggishness. People are not bilious who eat what they should. The Greek and Roman armies ate but once a day.

The common impression that tomatoes are the healthiest of all vegetables is a mistake. If eaten at all it should with moderation, and never raw. Tomatoes have sometimes produced salivation. Dr. Lewis knows a young woman who lost all her teeth from excessive eating of tomatoes.

Pies and cakes are poisonous.

To healthy persons mineral waters are not wholesome.

Corsets are most injurious to to digestion. Their use finally results in an immense and very ugly protuberance of the abdomen.

Those who suffer from heartburn should avoid soups, drink nothing at meals, say "No, thank you," to pies and go without supper.

If you wish to live to eighty five, in the full enjoyment of all your freculties, go to bed at nine o'clock, and eat twice a day a moderate quantity of plain food.

JOSH BILLINGS ON CONTENTMENT.

Kontentment is the gift of God, as it kan be cultivated a little, but it is hard tew acquire. Kontentment is sed to be the same az happiness. This akounts for the amount ov happiness laying around loose, without enny owner. I dont believe that man was made tew be kontented, nor happy in this world, for ef he had ben, he wouldn't have hankered enuff for the other world,

Kontentment is a kind ov moral laziness; if there want ennything but kontentment in this world, man wouldn't be enny more ov a success than an angle worm is.

When a man gets so that he don't want enny more, he is like a rackoon, with his intestines full ov green corn.

Kontentment iz one ov the instinkts, i admit it tew be happiness, iz a kind ov spruce gum chawing happiness.

We all find fault with Adam and Eve, for not being kontented, but if they had bin satisfied with the garden ov Eden, and themselfs, they would have been living thare now, the only 2 human beings on the face ov the earth az innocent az a couple of vegetable oysters.

They would have ben 2 splendid specimens oy the handiwork ov God, elegant portraits in the vestibule ov heaven, but they would not have developed reason, the only God like attribute in man.

I have lived in naberhoods where everybody seemed to be kontented, but if the itch had ever broke out in them naberhoods, the people would have skratched to this day.

I am in favor ov all the vanitys and ambishuns, all the jealousies and backbitings in the world, not bekause i think they are handsome, but bekause i think they stir up men and women, get them onto their mussel, cultivate their venon and reason at the same time, and proving what a brilliant cuss man may be, at the same time it proves what a miserable cuss he iz.

I had rather see two wimen pull hair than tew see them sit down, thoroughly satisfied with an aimless life, and never suffer enny excitement greater than blending tears together, through their nose, for a parcel ov shiftless heathen on the coast ov Madagaskar, or, once in a while open their eyes, from a dream ov young hyson kontentment tea, tew sarch the allmiknax for the next change in the moon.

The world iz now full ov larning, the arts, and sciences, and all the thousand appliances, ov reason. These things make ignorance the exception, and no man haz the right tew cultivate kontentment, enny more than he has to cut oph his thum, and set quietly down, and nuss the stub.

Show me a thoroughly kontented person, and i will show you a useless one.

What we want iz folks who won't be kontented, who kant be kontented, who git up in the morning, not simply to have their beds made but for the sake ov getting tired, not for the sake four feet high.

nourishing kontentment, but for the sake ov putting terpentine in sum diet place and stirring up the animals.

Kontentment was born with Adam, and died when Adam ceased tew be an angel, and bekum a man.

I dont say that a man couldn't be hatched out, and, like a young owl, set on a dry limb, awl his days, with his brains az fast asleep az a mudturtles, and at last sneek into heaven, under the guize of kontentment, but i do say that ten generashuns ov such men would run most of the human race into the ground, and leave the ballance az lifeless and az base az a currency made out ov a pewter ten cent piece.

There aint no sich thing az kontentment and reason existing together. Those who slip out of the crowd, into sum alley, and pretend they are chawing the end of sweet kontentment, the very best specimens ov them are no better than pin cushins stuck full.

They have jist az menny longings az enny body, they have jist az menny vices, their virtews are too often simply a mixture ov jealousy and edwardice.

Kontentment is never to be designed az a steddy business for the sons ov man, while on this earth.

A yeller dog, with a tin kittle tide tew his tale, climbing a hill at a three minit gate, is a more reasonable spektakle for me, than a slimy snail kontented and happy.

A NATIONAL RAILROAD TIME.

Mr. C. F. Dowd, of Saratoga, N. Y. has devised a national system of time for railroads, the scientific part of which receives the indorsement of Profs. Loomis and Newton of Yale College, Prof. Hough, of the Albany Observatory, and the Prof. of Astronomy at the Military Academy at West Point, and the practicability and feasibility of which is already indorsed by the superintendents of many of our most important roads, such as the Boston & Albany, Connecticut River, Hartford & New Haven, Hartford, Providence & Fishkill, New York Central, Erie, Harlem, and Lake Shore & Chicago.

The work was an immense labor, involving eight thousand compilations for longitude. It adopts Washington time for the eastern portion of the country as standard time; one hour slower than Washington time for the Mississippi Valley; two hours slower for the Rocky Mountain section, and three hours slower for the Pacific states. These standards are designated by the small figures 0, 1, 2, 3, respectively placed in a little elevated position before the names of the stations. Then to designate the minute difference between the local time of any station and railroad or standard time, small figures are placed in a little elevated position after the names of the stations. These figures, when they indicate that railroad time is too fast, have the sign + before them, and the sign —, when they indicate railroad time too slow. If adopted, the whole system being very simple would, it is presumed, soon be understood by the traveling public. The traveler could keep his own time wherever he might go, and take the cars by his own watch as well in one part of the country as in another.

GIANTS.

In one of his recent lectures, Prof. Silliman, the younger, alluded to the discovery of the skeleton of an enormous lizard of eighty feet. The professor inferred, as no living specimen of such magnitude has been found, that the species which it represents had degenerated. The verity of his position he rather singularly endeavored to enforce by an allusion to the well known existence of giants in old times. The following list is the data upon which the singular hypothesis is based:

The giant exhibited at Rouen, in 1630, the professor says, measured nearly eighteen feet.

Garapius saw a girl that was ten feet high.

The giant Galabra brought from Arabia to Rome, under Claudius Cæsar, was ten feet high.

Fannum, who lived in the time of Eugene II., measured eleven and a half feet.

The Chevalier Scrog, in his voyage to the Peak of Teneriffe, found in one of the caverns of that mountain the head of the Gunich, who had sixty teeth, and was not less than fifteen feet high.

The giant Farragus, slain by Orlando, nephew of Charlemagne, was twenty feet high.

In 1500, near Rouen, was found a skeleton whose skull held a bushel of corn, and who was nineteen feet high.

The giant Racart was thirty-three feet high; his thigh bones were found in 1703, near the river Moderj.

In 1623, near the castle in Dauphine, a tomb was found thirty feet long, sixteen feet wide, and eighty feet high, on which was cut in gray stones these words: "Keutolochus Rex." The skeleton was found entire, twenty-five and a fourth feet long, ten feet across the shoulders, and five feet from the breast to the back.

Near Palermo, in Sicily, in 1316, was found the skeleton of a giant thirty feet high, and, in 1559, another forty-

Near Mazarine, in Sicily, 1815, was found the skeleton of a giant thirty feet high. The head was the size of a hogshead, and each of the teeth weighed five ounces.

We have no doubt there were giants in those days, and the past was more prolific in producing them than the present. But the history of giants during the olden time was not more than that of dwarfs, several of whom were much smaller than the Thumbs and Nutts of our time.

A model obituary.—J. Bangs, we are sorry to say, has deceased, and a western obituary thus pays tribute to his memory.

"Jem was generally considered a good fellow. He went forth without a struggel and such is life. To-day we are pepper-grass—mighty smart—tomorrow we are cut down like cowcumbers to the ground. Jem kept a nice store, which his wife now waits on. His werchews were numerous to behold. Meny is the things that we got at his grocery, and we are happy to state to the admiring world that he never cheated, especially in the weight of mackerel, which was nice and smelled sweet. His surviving wife was the same way. We never knew him to put sand in sugar, though he had a big sand bar in front of his house, nor water in his liquors though the Ohio river runs past his door. Peace to his remains. He leaves 1 wife, 7 children, 1 cow, a grocery store and other quadrupeds."

TOOT TOOT.

Doubtless there are many persons residing in close proximity to railroads, who, like ourself have heard every day the various toots of the locomotive, noticed the different gyrations of all arms of conductors by day or lanterns by night, and wondered what it all means. We have taken pains to inform ourselves on this subject, in order that we might inform our readers. The following will give the reader a very correct idea of their signification:

One whistle, Down Brakes.
Two whistles, Off brakes.
Three whistles, back up.
Continuous whistles, danger.

A rapid succession of short whistles is the cattle alarm, at which the brakes will always be put down.

A downward motion of the hand, with extended arm, to stop.

A lantern raised and lowered vertically is a signal for starting, swung at right angles, or crossways the track, to stop, swung in a circle, to back the train.

A red flag waved upon the track must be regarded as a signal of danger. So of other signals given with energy.

Carried unfurled upon an engine, is a warning that another train or engine is on its way.

The romance of the runaway darkey was quite played out after the people of the north and south had picked their flints for the last shot. Once in a while, however, there comes a reminiscence which shows Sambo's native humor, and how irresistable was his hankering for freedom. Before the war there came into the bar room of a Canada hotel, near the frontier a bright looking negro, who was thus addressed by one of the eminent persons usually found in such resorts:

Feeling that he was pretty well away from bondage, the darkey responded that he was.

'Ah, indeed, well, we are glad of it; but you don't seem to look very poor, have you good clothes down south?'

'Certainly,' said the darkey, with some pride. 'Same clothes as my master.'

'But you got a good many thrashings, eh.'

'Never had a thrashing in my life.'

'Never thrashed!' said another 'well, but you niggers don't always get enough to eat do you?'

'Always had enough, sir, never wery hungry.'

'What!' said the interrogator, 'good clothes, no punishment, plenty to eat. 'Now,' said he, turning to the group, 'only think of it, this fellow has left a position where he enjoys all these privileges for an uncertainty.'

'Gemmen,' said the darkey, 'all I'se got to say respectin' dem priviliges is, dat if enny one wants to avail hisself of 'em de situation am still open.'

A good story is told of a physician who was called upon to visit a sick man, after he had himself taken a drop too much. Arrived at the bedside, he fumbled over his patient, and at last got hold of his own pulse, which he held for a minute or two and then with customary medical gravity, remarked:

'Well, there's nothin' much matter wi' you—only a little drunk! Jist go t' bed 'n sleep till'n you'll b' all right.'

A young man was sent to Maine to examine the condition of a mill after a freshet, reported by due course of mail as follows:

The Independent.

Two Dollars a year, in advance.

Massillon, Wednesday, January 4.

An article appears elsewhere in to-day's paper in which are many excellent suggestions concerning the proposed railroad, and the numerous advantages presented by adopting this route. It will be read with interest by our people, and all others who feel an interest in this proposed great improvement. There certainly are advantages—at least they appear so to us—in passing through this region which no other proposed route presents; but it is all with the principal managers of the great work to decide. They have the final disposition of this matter, and will perhaps make known their decision ere long.

Rev. Albert Barnes, a distinguished and able writer, of the Presbyterian church, died at his residence in Philadelphia, one day last week, at an advanced age. His notes and commentaries on the scriptures have given him a reputation as one of the foremost theological writers of the present age. On the slavery question, although connected with a conservative branch of the church, he was always in the right—preferring to go with the minority and justice to co-operating with the majority and oppression. His manner of preaching was not of the demonstrative order, but cool, calm and sincere, aiming to convince the judgment rather than to arouse the prejudices, or merely appeal to the feelings.

The Ohio Legislature met yesterday. It is probable the governor's message will be along in a day or two—if he delivers one at an adjourned meeting of that body. Business of importance to the state will come up before the legislature for action, not the least of which will be re-districting counties for the purpose of electing congressmen.

Much attention has been paid, in the mining districts, to the idea of enacting statutes for the purpose of regulating that great interest. Thousands of men and millions of capital are concerned in something of this kind, and there should be some way provided in which to avoid the frequent collisions which come up in the shape of strikes, causing disturbances and troubles wherever they occur. If our legislature can do anything to avert these misunderstandings, or to adjust them when they come up it is quite time that it be done.

Latest foreign news that we have is up to the first of this year. The Prussians continue to make advances, notwithstanding occasional successes by the French, all of which seem to be of a transient character. The besiegers have commenced bombarding some of the outposts of Paris, and were making slow but sure advances. A few days ago we were informed that Paris was provisioned sufficiently to last a winter's but other despatches indicate that the besieged—who have been penned up one hundred days—are on short rations. If this is so we may be quite sure that Paris will be taken before spring, for the Prussians are working with an energy and determination which bode success. The present result of this terrible warfare is an untold amount of human suffering by the people of both nations.

When will nations learn to settle their differences without resorting to the brutal arbitrament of war?

General Prim, a leading Spaniard who wielded a vast power in the affairs of that nation, was shot by a band of seven or eight assassins, at Madrid, on the 27th ult., and died of his wounds on the 29th. Amadeus, the new king of that truculent people, is about assuming the of royalty, and unless he is more fortunate than his predecessors, is destined to trouble.

A congress of European nations was talked of a short time ago, for the purpose of discussing and settling threatened troubles in which Russia is to be a prominent actor. In consequence of the present war France cannot participate, so the meeting is indefinitely postponed. War may be the result.

MEETING OF THE STARK COUNTY MEDICAL SOCIETY.

At the quarterly meeting of the Stark County Medical Society, held at Canton, in the rooms of the Y. M. C. A., Dec. 29th, 1870, the society was called to order by Dr. Daugherty, and L. H. Whiting appointed secretary pro tem.

Minutes of last meeting read.

After the usual preliminaries the society proceeded to the election of officers for the ensuing year with the following result:

President, A. W. Whiting, M D of Canton.

Secretary, A. W. Ridenour, M D of Massillon.

Treasurer, A. W. Baker, M D of Louisville.

The special committees of last year were ordered to be continued as per record. No reports of special committees offered.

After the reading of an essay by Dr. Ridenour, on Bruries at the Hip Joint, the discussion of the virtues of water as a prophylactic agent took place, soon after which the society appointed Dr Houtz essayest for the next meeting and adjourned to meet at the rooms of the Y. M. C. A., Canton, on the 30th of March 1871, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

For the Independent.

Mr. Editor: My attention has been called to an article published in your paper of the 14th Dec., about liquor selling, and signed K. Will you permit a brief reply? not in the interest of liquor selling, but in defense of truthfulness.

The writer in question, after in a masked style prefering a charge against the Christians of this city in general, makes a fling at a particular individual and uses the following language: "Only a short time since a prominent deacon in one of the churches, refused to give an order on one of the temperance groceries, but came in person to one of us and procured the articles necessary. The store was filled at the time, and ale was passing freely, yet it did not disturb him. I allude to this to show that our practice is right; that we have the verdict of the only class that can possibly control its use."

Now, Mr. Editor, when I first read K's article, (an extract from which is quoted above) I did not know to whom he referred, or to what church he alluded; but, on further reflection, the thought occurred to me, that possibly a small transaction that happened soon after the miners went to work, was the indirect occasion of K's personal remarks. Had he assailed my character as a citizen I would not stoop to an explanatory reply; but he hurls his arrow through the dark, at the deacon of a Christian church, and as such I explain and reply.

Now, the true facts in the case are these: A very short time after the miners went to work, the manager at one of our mines gave two orders to some of the miners for groceries on a grocer up Main street, on Mr. B.'s account, (the gentleman I do business for.) He—the grocer—asked me if he should furnish the goods on the same? I told him, No—that we had not authorized the manager to give any such orders, and that we did not want him to do so—that such a course might lead to difficulty; beside, these orders were not signed by the manager himself, but by another person for the manager, and that we did not know whether he had ordered them or not; but that, if the manager would give in his own hand writing, an order on the office in favor of any miner he had at work, that he wished to assist, that we would pay in money, but would not sanction these orders given in that way. Before I could see the manager and forbid him giving these orders, another order came to hand on a certain temperance grocer, who sent one of his men down to the office to know if such an order was correct. I told him as I did the other, No, and gave him about the same reason why, as I had given to the other party. On my way home I met the miner, who held the order on the temperance grocer, and who represented to me that he was very much in need; that he was out of all kinds of provisions at home, and that it would be a great favor if I could help him. I told him that I had no money with me, but to come with me and I would see what I could do for him. I stopped at the store of the grocer up Main st., and told him to let this man have the amount the order called for in money, or, if the miner saw fit, in groceries, and when I came up in the evening I would pay him.

This, Mr. Editor, is the true statement in the case, and it is on this simple transaction that K bases his unwarrantable charge that the aforesaid deacon refused to give an order on a temperance grocery, but come in person to us and procured the articles necessary.

It may be asked, Well, why did you not go to the temperance store mentioned, and do as you did at the other? My reply is, that Mr. B. has his own way of transacting his business. He dealt with the before-mentioned grocer up Main street, buying powder, oil, &c., long before I came here, and has done so ever since, and I only carried out his wishes in doing what I did in this transaction.

Being satisfied that I was correct in my suspicions in regard to the instigator of this charge against the deacon of one of the churches, I called (taking a friend with me), on the proprietor of this said temperance grocery, to know if he had written the article signed K. He denied having written it himself, but admitted that he had mentioned the circumstance about the order to several persons. He would not say who he thought wrote it, and stated he was sorry the article had been written; but appeared to regret much more the loss he had sustained in not being permitted to fill the said order than he did in the publication of K's article. Although expressing sorrow for the publication in question, he did not do as some men would have done, offer to have the matter publicly corrected; but he expressed no such desire or intention; and I have waited this long, hoping that he might do so, which, had he done, this communication would have been unnecessary.

A few words with K and I am done. He who attempts to lecture others on the purity of their Christian conduct, should himself be pure. This, I think, Mr. Editor, you will admit. I think I know "K," and would like to ask him two question. First—Do you not think, "K," that it would have been more in accordance with what you have attempted to teach—Christian consistency—to have first called on me to ascertain the facts about the before mentioned orders before rushing headlong into the public papers with your misstatements? You know, K, that you and myself have always been on friendly terms, and you also know you would not have had to have gone but about four steps out of your way to have seen me two or three times a day.

Second—"Is it inconsistent with your profession, K, occasionally to buy groceries and a keg of ale of those who sell liquor? If it is, why do you do it?"

In conclusion, let me say one word about liquor selling. I am as much opposed to liquor selling and drinking as K possibly can be—for I never buy ale or anything which can intoxicate—and could I do so, would stop its sale, not only here but everywhere. But I have my doubts, whether such articles written by him will promote the cause of temperance or religion, or help the aforesaid temperance grocer to sell any more goods, by black mailing Christians, as K has attempted to do.

Massillon, Jan. 3, 1871. J. N.

France refuses to engage in the commerce on the eastern question, and it has consequently been postponed until one of the chief signatory powers which formed the treaty can freely engage in it. France doubtless hoped by this refusal to compel the recognition of the Republic, but England and Austria are not likely to commit themselves hastily while Prussia remains so strong and France so weak. The interesting question which now comes up is, will Russia postpone her designs until France is free from her enemy and in a condition to take part in the conference and the struggle in which it may possibly end? Russia has not chosen the moment of the French embarrassment to threaten war in order to await the recovery of that power before precipitating it. We should do Prince Gortschakoff injustice to credit him with so little sagacity. Russian preparations have continued pending the negotiations for a conference and demonstrations will undoubtedly follow the refusal of France to enter the congress. Indeed the action of Roumania in declaring her independence and forming a new government appears to be but a part of the programme of further action.

THE BALTIMOR, PITTSBURGH AND CHICAGO RAILROAD.

Wooster, O December 10, 1870.

The first survey for the Baltimore, Pittsburgh and Chicago Road was from Beaver to Lisbon, Columbiana county, and hence to Canton, Ashland and Plymouth. Since the change of base in Pensylvania a new organization has been gotten up in the interest of this road, in the name of the Baltimore, Pittsburgh and Chicago Railway through the States of Ohio and Indiana to Laporte, commencing at a point in Middleton township, Columbiana county, thence to New Lisbon, Bayard, Canton, Wooster, Ashland, Plymouth, Tiffin Fostoria, Napoleon and Bryan, in Ohio; thence to Angola, Lagrange, Goshen and Laporte, Indiana., ready to consolidate as soon as a location is made. A sufficient amount is subscribed in New Lisbon, and along the route, including Canton, to grade and right of way from Canton to Laporte—twelve hundred thousand dollars—the greater part of which is already subscribed. The balance will soon be made up, together with the right of way, which is very nearly secured over the entire route. The citizens along this line are alive to their interests, and daily raising stock. It is the opinion of many that two million of dollars can be raised along this route, if it is once known that the road will be located on this line. The advantages of this route over all others mentioned are too great to need comment, and I will but enumerate a few of them.

Advantage No. 1: This route produces ten million bushels more coal a year than any route mentioned in the interest of the road, together with endless beds of iron ore and quarries of sand stone, lime stone, &c.

Advantage No 2: We show for this route from our State statistics that fifty per cent more of agricultural products such as wheat, rye, oats, barley, apples potatoes, and every thing else that is raised on land, than any other proposed route,

Advantage No. 3 We claim the greatest tonnage for freight over the route in the nine counties through which this route runs: we are able to show fifteen millions of bushels of grain raised per year, consequently where large yields of grain are had everything else raised by the farming community is produced in large quantities.

Advantage No. 4: This route passes through eight county seats, many of which are large manufacturing towns; crossing fifteen railroads from New Lisbon to Laporte. A favorable connection will be made with the Northern Pacific for the direct California business for eastern ports.

Advantage No. 5: the shortest route from Pittsburgh to Chicago is over this line, which distance of road in 444 miles—20 miles shorter than the P. F. W. & C. R. with an air line and shorter grades than any other proposed route.—Pittsburgh Commercial.

Hair Vigor,

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a

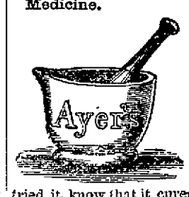
Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.



Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cures them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression, a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

Q. W. REEVES.

Jan. 4, 1870.

So far as we can see our people have entered on the new year in good spirits, as far as business is concerned. The time for a general collapse has not yet arrived here, and we hope it may be indefinitely posponed. We may not progress as rapidly as some others, but the policy appears to be, to make things sure as we go along. Considerable settling up of accounts is going on these days, and thus far all seems to be harmonious.

There is always so much of interest even, in the prospectus for the New York Tribune, that we make no apology for its appearance in this paper. It comes as an annual message, filled with information, and although many differ from the sentiments promulgated in its pages, yet the paper commands a respect and wields an influence unequaled by any other publication in the country. See prospectus for 1871 on first page.

The articles on temperance published in this paper within the last few weeks are having an influence which cannot be overlooked. What was there stated caused people to think, and develops the fact that all who favor virtue and righteousness sympathise with the sentiments of the temperance movement.

The funeral of a favorite child, a little daughter, aged about 9 years, of Jabob Stansbury, who lives not far from town, took place one day last week. It was largely attended, as the little one, although so young won the admiration of the neighborhood, especially as she developed unusual musical powers.

Mr. Altekruse means business. He begins the year right—determined to let the people see that he is prepared to accommodate all in selling his great variety of stock in quantities to suit purchasers. Such enterprise will meet its reward. See his new advertisement elsewhere.

Chemistry is furnishing us new agents for fuel, force, food and many other important aids over those we once possessed Ports from which commerce was driven during the hot months by their terrible fevers are visited all the year with impunity now. Many localities in the south and west kept tenantless by their deleterious miasms are now filling up with populations under the protection of Ayer's Ague Cure. Their afflicting chills and fevers are so effectually cured by this remedy that the disease no longer turns emigration aside or destroys the settler if he ventures upon the infected district.—Gazette, Independence, Mo.

Some time ago considerable complaint arose from the extensive prevalence of scarlet fever among the children of West Massillon, and a few deaths was the result; but since the cold weather the fever has abated, and comparative health seems to be restored.

The protracted series of dark, cloudy days which began about the time of the winter, solstice, and were continued with little intermission for ten or twelve days, was changed on Saturday last, which turned out to be a fine, clear day, the sun shining brilliantly, and strong enough to cause the snow and ice to thaw in some localities.

MATRIMONIAL.—Peter Morganthaler, another one of our bachelors, is gone, gone to that sphere in life where loneliness troubles not.—Yes, Pete has gone, gone to Chicago,—to be married—left the associations of his earlier days, to assume those responsibilities of maturer years. Many, many are the friends that will mourn for him,—but we extend the hand of friendship and good will, and know that he has gone, gone

To bliss beyond all that the minstrel has told.

The foregoing is from a Ft. Wayne paper; and although the writer claims Peter as one of their citizens, we think that Massillon has a prior claim. But it is all right—Mr. Morganthaler has gone the way that many a good fellow has traveled before; and it is quite time that numerous of our bachelor brethren here were imitating Mr. Morganthaler and Mr. Deitrich in this respect. While there is life there is hope.

Mr. Reeves is filling an order for probably the largest marble monument that was ever manufactured here, to go to New Comerstown, Coshocton County. It will weigh some six tons when finished, and will be about fifteen feet in height. He keeps a considerable force of men at work, indicating that business is good in his line.

The valedictory of the past year was observed on Saturday night, here, by not a little shooting, as if those who expressed themselves thus were in a hurry to get rid of 1870. No need of this disposition to precipitancy for there was no possible way of witnessing the expiration of the year before the appointed hour—and powder could not bring that a minute sooner. But it was a rather good old year, and many of the events which transpired during its existence will long be cherished as among the pleasant reminiscences of the past. We should hold no grudges against its memory, for the year did its part in bestowing upon all another twelve months of time, in which to prove that we have not existed in vain. As 1870 did all this, how is it with us? Have we performed our parts as well? If not, may it not be well to do better during 1871?—or if our work was well done, let it be continued. About 12 o'clock on Saturday night it is said that some one or more of the church bells was rung, thus carrying out the poet's ideal—"Ring out the old—Ring in the new." But while the past was a rather agreeable year to the mass of the people in this country, the last half of it has brought sorrow to hundreds and thousands of hearts in Europe. The terrible war between France and Prussia has been the source of suffering and grief which will not be forgotten by the uncounted victims of its fearful severity.

No preaching was had on last Sunday at the Episcopal church in consequence of the absence of the rector, G. W. Timlow, who was called away to attend the funeral of a near relative.

In accordance with the requirements of the general evangelical alliance, the churches of this place are holding daily religious services during this week.

The effort to establish a Young Men's Christian Association, in this place, has thus far not been a success.

In consequence of unforseen obstacles Rev. Dr. Eells, of Cleveland, did not lecture in the Presbyterian church, of this place, on last Wednesday evening, as announced, but we are assured that he will be here on next Tuesday evening without fail. Let him be greeted with a full house.

Although this is already the fourth day of 1871, it is not too late to wish all a happy new year.

A number of the G. A. R. boys, we are informed, spend several evenings of each week, at their hall, in reading and other literary exercises. This is a better investment of time than squandering their hours at grogshops.

After a brief recess our schools resumed their daily exercises yesterday, and will continue the session for eleven weeks.

The last theatrical troupe that was to be here during several nights of the past week, for some reason did not put in an appearance.

Our merchants and many other business men closed their places of business on Monday—in deference to the understanding that when the new year begins on Sunday the day following is to be observed. So it is of Christmas, Fourth of July, &c.

The cold of this morning is close akin to something of the same sort we had near the end of the old year.

The time table of the Niles and New Lisbon railroad, as may be seen on examination is changed up to date.

FEMALE DISEASES.

At the present day it is extremely rare to find a female who is entirely free from one or other of the diseases peculiar to her sex. Go where you will, on the mountain top or in the valley, in the hamlet or in the city, among the rich or the lowly, there will be found very few females who are not laboring under physical affliction peculiar to womanhood.

The cause of this we will not undertake to explain here. The numerous applications made to us for relief during our twenty years' practice, has long induced us to make especial study and investigation of these diseases, and their best method of cure. They are maladies of a peculiar character, and as a general thing they require a method of treatment entirely unlike that adopted common to both sexes. In fact, the very frequency and extent of female diseases in our midst, is good evidence that the "common treatment" has not met with success, and shows that some more efficient course should be adopted.

We were long since convinced that local remedies and external appliances, bandages, &c., were palliatives for the time, and no permanent value whatever but oftimes injurious; and that an efficient course of medication was the only hope of cure.

For the benefit of those who may be afflicted with any disease peculiar to the sex, whether from a slight cold, followed by a derangement and irregularity of the general system which many times produces cough, expectoration, tightness of the chest, difficult breathing, palpitation, &c., with all the symptoms of "going into a decline," or from any of the very many other causes which produce such terrible suffering among women, as to make life a burden to them, we would say, that our remedies are selected and prepared with a special view towards these ends, and will give relief in all these kinds of cases, without needless exposure to indelicate examinations, or the wearing of disagreeable instruments or cumbrous appliances.

We have cured hundreds—yes, thousands—of cases by medical treatment alone, hundreds of whom we have never seen, but who only obtained their medicines after having sent to us their cases for examination.

Our remedies in these diseases are mild but effectual, and such as are found out to act in conformity with the laws of nature in regulating health; and from the success which has almost invariably crowned our efforts in these cases, we can promise, and do promise, a speedy cure in every case where a reasonable hope can be entertained.

Send us a vial of morning urine by express and we can send you the necessary medicines.

THE TRUE

THEORY OF PURGATION

APPLIED TO THE

Liver, Kidneys, Skin, STOMACH & BOWELS.

DR. RADWAY'S

PERFECT

PURGATIVE PILLS,

Perfectly Tasteless,

ELEGANTLY COATED.

MATERIA MEDICA contains, in its repertoire many purgative and cathartic agents that, for ordinary purposes, open the bowels, and through what is called a "sensible" movement, purge from the alimentary canal the feces and that is all. Such agents, for the purpose of cure, or removal of any settled disease, are utterly useless.

Dr. RADWAY has completed one of the most essential discoveries in medical chemistry—in the combination of vegetable substances, for the purposes of a PURGATIVE, APERIANT, COUNTER-IRRITANT, ALTERATIVE PILL, that can be taken or administered with the absolute certainty of securing THOROUGH EXPULSION OF ALL DECAYED AND DECOMPOSING Elements of the human body, and also safe to take in the most malignant of Eruptive Fevers. In cases where the mucous membranes of the internal viscera are suffering from Ulceration, Inflammation, or from

Gastric, Bilary, Pancreatic Complaints,

DR. RADWAY'S PILLS

Supply the only Vegetable substitute for

CALOMEL OR MERCURY.

In RADWAY'S PILLS you have one medicine that will secure quicker, more thorough and better results than will be given in from three or more different prescriptions of the medical practitioner. As a proof of this—You are seized with a Bilious attack! Doctor prescribes Blue Pills or Calomel! next, some Drastic Aloetic Pill or Powders to work off the effects of the Blue Pill; this prostrates you, and a tonic is next given, or a gentle aperient whereas ONE DOSE OF RADWAY'S PILLS will do all the work that the three or more prescriptions are given for, without running any risk from mercurializing or salivating the system.

RADWAY'S PILLS.

In RADWAY'S PILLS, the true principle of purgation is secured—not alone to the office of evacuating the fæces and excrements from the bowels but those humors that are checked or stopped in their passage through the Skin, Kidneys, Lungs, and all excreting and secreting functions; for if these excrementious secretions belonging to the skin, liver, lungs, kidneys, are interrupted in their escape, they become products of decay and decomposition, and must be purged from the living body through their proper channels; hence the purgative qualities of RADWAY'S PILLS extend to the secretions of the SKIN, KIDNEYS, LIVER, &c.; whereas not one of the advertised Pills claim to act beyond the bowels.

How to Take Radway's Pills.

THEIR DAILY USE.

In doses of one or two pills, by all persons of a full habit of body, subject to giddiness, rush of blood to the head, palpitation of the heart, and all those subject to fits, will not only keep the blood from becoming congested or clogged up in the blood vessels, but will equalize its circulation, and prevent sudden attacks of apoplexy, disease of the heart, or congestion. Persons who will take one of these pills every day will not suffer from Headaches, Dizziness, Hysterics, Fainting Spells, Pains around the Heart, and a hundred other disagreeable symptoms.

DYSPEPSIA.

One of RADWAY'S PILLS, two or three hours before dinner, taken daily, will keep the system free from DYSPEPSIA, INDIGESTION, CONSTIPATION, COSTIVENESS, &c.

Bear in Mind,

RADWAY'S PILLS are the only purgative that will secure an alterative, diuretic, sudorific, aperient and tonic influence.

They are the only vegetable substitutes for Calomel or Mercury.

They promote the secretion of bile and withdraw it from the circulation.

They assist, through their nutritious properties, the chyme and chyle, and gastric juices in the process of digestion.

PRICE, Twenty-Five Cents per Box, or Five Boxes for One Dollar. Always ask for RADWAY'S PILLS, and see that the letters R. R. R. are on one side of label, and the words Radway's Regulators on the other. Sold by all Druggists and General Store Keepers, and at Dr. RADWAY'S Medical Office, 87 Maiden Lane, New York.

SARSAPARILLIAN,

PAREIRA BRAVA.

TWO OF THE MOST POTENT INGREDIENTS THAT ENTER INTO THE COMPOSITION OF RADWAY'S SARSAPARILLIAN OR RESOLVENT.

There are some thirty or more different species of Sarsaparillian, and it requires a close and intelligent investigation of the proper kinds; so with PAREIRA BRAVA. This great medicinal agent is to be found in Guayaquil, Peru, Nicaragua, Brazil and there are some twenty species of this root. Dr. Radway has seen one kind, that which grows in Brazil. He employs, through his agents, none but experienced and intelligent men in gathering, selecting, packing, and shipping these roots to the United States. No ignorant savages or Hottentots are employed in gathering vegetables, roots, plants, &c., for the Sarsaparillian Resolvent.

RADWAY'S SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT is sold at $1 per Bottle, or 6 bottles for $5. Every Druggist and Medicine Dealer, and at Dr. RADWAY'S Depot in Warehouse, 87 Maiden Lane, New York City.

Dear Sir:—Having stated it verbally to you, I have no hesitation in writing the fact, although not disposed in favor or to recommend patent medicines in general.

I do this more readily in regard to the sick headache cure prepared by Dr. Whittlesey, of Norwalk, Ohio. I have analyzed and tried it, and I recommend it as one of the best dyspepsia cures ever invented, and I feel that in recommending Whittlesey's cure I am doing at act of justice to the compounder of it, and an act of benevolence to those afflicted with dyspepsia and sick headache for which it is recommended.

TO PHYSICIANS.

NEW YORK, August 15th, 1868.

Allow to call attention to my Preparation of Compound Extract Buchu. The component parts are Buchu, Long Leaf, Cubebs, Juniper Berries.

Mode of Preparation.—Buchu, in vacuo. Juniper berries, by distillation to form a fine gin. Cubebs extracted by displacement with spirits obtained from Juniper Berries, very little sugar is used and a small proportion of spirit. It is more palatable than any now in use.

Buchu as prepared by druggists, is of a dark color. It is a plant that emits its fragrance; the action of a flame destroys this (its active principle), leaving a dark and glutinous decoction. Mine is the color of ingredients. The buchu in my preparation predominate; smallest quantity of the other ingredients are added, to prevent fermentation; upon inspection it will be found not to be a tincture, as made in pharmacopœa, nor is it a syrup—and therefore can be used in cases where fever or inflamation exists. In this, you have a knowledge of the ingredients and the mode of preparation.

Hoping that you will favor it with a trial, and that upon inspection it will meet with your approbation,

With a feeling of profound confidence,
I am, very respectfully.

Hoofland's German Bitters,

Hoofland's German Tonic,

Hoofland's Podophyllin Pill

Hoofland's Greek Oil.

Hoofland's German Bitters,

A Bitters without Alcohol or Spirits of any kind.

Is different from all others. It is composed of the pure juices or vital principle of roots herbs, and barks, (or as medicinally termed extracts), the worthless or inert portions of the ingredients not being used. Therefore, in one bottle of this bitters there is contained as much medicinal virtue as will be found in several gallons of ordinary mixtures. The roots &c, used in this bitters are grown in Germany, their vital principles extracted in that country by a scientific chemist and forwarded to the manufactory in this city, where they are compounded and bottled. Containing no spirituous ingredients, this bitters is free from the objections urged against all others; no desire for stimulants can be induced from their use, they cannot make drunkards, and cannot under any circumstances, have any but a benencial effect.

Hoofland's German Tonic

Was compounded for those not inclined to extreme bitters, and is intended for use in cases where some alcoholic stimulant is required in connection with the tonic properties of the bitters. Each bottle of the tonic contains one bottle of the bitters, combined with pure Santa Cruz Rum, and flavored in such a manner that the extreme bitterness of the bitters is overcome, forming a preparation highly agreeable and pleasant to the palate, and containing the medicinal virtues of the bitters. The price of the tonic is $1,50 per bottle, which many persons think too high. They must take into consideration that the stimulant used is guaranteed to be of a pure quality. A poor article could be furnished at a cheaper price, but is it not better to pay a little more and have a good article? A medicinal preparation should contain only the best ingredients, and they who expect to obtain a cheap compound will most certainly be cheated.

They are the greatest known Remedies

For Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, Jaundice, Disease of the Kidneys, Eruptions of the Skin, and all diseases arising from a disordered Liver, or Stomach, or Impurity of the Blood.

Read the following symptoms:

Constipation, flatulence, inward piles, fullness of blood to the head, acidity of the stomach, nausea, heartburn, disgust for food, fullness or weight in the stomach, sour eructations, sinking or flattering at the pit of the stomach, swimming of the head, hurried or difficult breathing, fluttering at the heart choking or suffocating sensations when in a lying posture, dimness of vision, dots or webs before the sight, dull pain in the head, deficiency of perspiration, yellowness of the skin, and eyes, pain in the side, back, chest, limbs, &c., sudden flushes of heat, burning in the flesh, constant imaginings of evil, and great depression of spirits. All these indicate disease of the liver or digestive organs combined with impure blood.

The use of the bitters or tonic will soon cause the above symptoms to disappear, and the patient will become well and healthy.

Dr. Hoofland's Greek Oil,

APPLIED INTERNALLY.—It will cure kidney complaints, backaches, sick headaches, colic, dysentery, diarrhœa, cholera Infantum, cholera morbus, cramps, and pains in the stomach, fever and ague, colds, coughs Asthma, &c.

APPLIED EXTERNALLY.—It will cure all kinds of pains and aches, such as rheumatism, neuralgia, toothache, chilblains, sprains bruises, frost bites, headaches, pains in the back and loins, pains in the joints or limbs, stings of insects, ringworms, &c.

Dr Hoofland's Podophyllin

Substitute for Mercury Pill.

TWO PILLS A DOSE.

It is not necessary to take a handful of these pills to produce the desired effect; two of them act quickly and powerfully, cleansing the liver, stomach and bowels of all impurities. The principal ingredient is Podophyllin, or the alcoholic extract of mandrake which is by many times more powerful, acting, and searching, than the mandrake itself. Its peculiar action is upon the liver, cleaning it speedily from all obstructions, with all the power of mercury, yet free from the injurious results attached to the use of that mineral.

For all diseases in which the use of a cathartic is indicated, these pills will give entire satisfaction in every case. They never fail.

In cases of liver complaint, dyspepsia, and extreme costiveness, Dr. Hoofland's German Bitterrs or tonic should be used in connection with the pills. The tonic effects of the bitters or tonic builds up the system. The bitters or tonic purifies the blood, strengthens the nerves, regulates the liver and gives strength, energy, and vigor.

Keep your bowels active with the pills, and tone up the system with bitters or tonic, and no disease can retain its hold, or ever assail you.

Recollect that it is Dr. Hoofland's German Remedies, that are so universally used and highly recommended; and do not allow the druggist to induce you to take anything else that he may say is just as good, because he makes a larger profit on it. These remedies will be sent by express to any locality, upon application to the principal office, at the German Medical Store, 631 Arch Street, Pa.

Chas. M. Evans, Prop.

Formerly C. M. Jackson & Co.

These remedies are for sale by druggists, storekeepers, and medicine dealers, everywhere throughout the United States, Canadas, So. America and the West Indies. 389 1y

Spread the Truth.

Some medical men insist that it is undignified to advertise a remedy, however valuable it may be. Queer reasoning this. It is like saying that an article which the world needs should be hid in a corner—that benefits and blessings may be too widely diffused—that the means of protecting and restoring health should be a close monopoly, an not accessible to all. The argument is bad It is worse than that, it is inhuman. Suppose Hostetter's stomach bitters—an absolute specific for dyspepsia, biliousness and nervous debility—had never been known beyond the repetoire of the faculty, what would have been the result? Instead of curing and invigorating millions, the good effects of the preparation would have been confined to a comparative few. There is the highest authority for saying that light should not be hid under a bushel; that whatever is excellent should be placed as a city upon a hill where all men can take cognizance of it. It is upon this principle that the bitters has been advertised and continue to be advertised in every newspaper of prominence the western hem sphere, and that the spontaneous testimonials in its favor have been translated into all written languages. Thousands enjoy perfect health to-day who would be languishing on beds of sickness if the newspapers had not spread the truth with regard to this unequaled invigorant and corrective far and wide. Suppose profit has been reaped from this publicity. Is that any argument against it? If the public health has been protected; if lives have been saved, if the feeble have been strengthened and the sick restored, great good has been accomplished; and who so mean as to grudge exertions thus directed their fair reward.

Many Eminent Men

Have candidly asserted their opinion that there is no remedy equal to Mishler's HERB BITTERS for that class of diseases peculiar to the people of sedentary habits. It is a preparation of wonderful virtue in all cases of this kind, never having failed in effecting a cure, and it still continues on its triumphant career. For all forms of diseases arising from the impurity of the Blood, or derangement of the digestive organs, including General Debility, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick Headache, Constipation, and similar ailments, it is a certain remedy. Leading physicians everywhere prescribe it to their patients, and have given the proprietors of the Bitters many testimonials of their confidence in the efficacy of the preparation as a remedy. Sold, in square bottles only, by all respectable druggists and storekeepers. Price one dollar per bottle For January.

Without boasting of being an organ of immense influence, we may with diffidence claim that the paper is not without usefulness in the right direction, ever contending for ju all the living issues of the day. Its home record of the ever varying phases of business, of the prosperity of the city, and of the social and moral state of society here, with other matters too numerous to specify, will give those who come after us, and have occasion to examine the files of this paper, a faithful history of the years of its existence.

Dr Long examines and explains your disease without asking any questions If he understands your case you know it, and cannot be deceived. If he cannot tell you disease, and how you feel without asking questions he does not consider himself competent to treat your case. This is the criterion to go by, and patients should not be satisfied with any other. This is the only direct and positive evidence of my ability as a scientific physician, and by this standard I am willing to be judged.

A proper diagnosis of local disease, without constitutional symptoms, that is, not affecting the system generally, must depend upon the judgement of both patient and physician.

Give Dr. Long a call, and satisfy yourselves whether he understands your cases sufficiently well to treat them successfully.

Dr. Long may be consulted in the German and English languages. Address letters,

DR. WHITTIER

Continues to treat all private diseases, syphilis in all its forms, gonorrhœa, gleet, stricture, orchitis, and all urinary diseases, and the effects of mercury are completely eradicated; spermatorrhœa or seminal weakness and impotency, resulting from self abuse or other causes, and which produce some of the following effects, as blotches, bodily weakness, indigestion, consumption, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future events, loss of memory, indolence, nocturnal emissions, and finally so prostrating the sexual system as to render marriage unsatisfactory, and therefore imprudent [illegible] permanently cured.

It is self evident that the physician who confines himself exclusively to the study of a certain class of diseases and treats thousands of cases every year must acquire a greater skill in that speciality than one in general practice.

The establishment, comprising ten ample rooms, is central. When it is not convenient to visit the city, the doctor's opinion can be obtained by giving a written statement of the case, and medicines can be sent by mail or express.

The doctor publishes a medical pamphlet of fifty pages that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases that can be had free at office or by mail, in sealed envelope, for two stamps. Every sentence contains instruction to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.

Hours 9 a m to 8 p. m. Sundays 12 m, to 2 p. m. Office, No. 9 Wylie street, (near the court house,) Pittsburg, Pa. 365-1y

JOS. COLEMAN.

I do not wish to inform you, reader, that Dr Wonderful, or any other man, has discovered a remedy that cures consumption, when the lungs are half consumed, in short, will cure all diseases whether of mind, body, or estate, make men live forever, and leave death to play for want of work, and is designed to make our sublunary sphere a blissful paradise, to which heaven itself shall be but a side show. You have heard enough of that kind of humbuggery. But when I tell you that Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy will cure the worst cases of catarrh in the head, I only assert that which thousands can testify to. I will pay $500 reward for a case that I cannot cure. A pamphlet giving symptoms and other information sent free to any address This remedy is

Price 50 cents. Sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of sixty cents, or four packages for two dollars. Beware of counterfeits and worthless imitations See that my private stamp, which is a positive guarantee of genuineness, is upon the outside wrapper. Remember that this private stamp issued by the U S government expressly for stamping my medicines, has my portrait name and address and the words U S Certificate of Genuineness engraved upon it, and need not be mistaken. Don't be swindled by travelers and others representing themselves as Dr. Sage, I am the only man now living that has the knowledge and right to manufacture the genuine Dr Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and I never travel to sell this medicine.
